

HI THERE I'M DAYNA BRAMSTON!

I'm running to represent you and UFCW Local 401 as a delegate at the upcoming UFCW INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION in Las Vegas this April.

Why Me?

I'm passionate about YOU and our LOCAL!

I love putting in the hard work at conventions!

I am punctual and show up to every session and event ready to go!

I jump in with both feet!

I go to the microphone during debates and raise my voice – and by extension YOUR voice – to make sure that Alberta's heard loud and clear!

I take pride in networking!

I love to learn and inspire learning!

Who Am I?

I am a 50-year-old feminist woman who has lots of life experience to draw from. I have invisible disabilities that have taught me to be a fighter. I am a proud unionist who is willing to put herself on the line for what and who she believes in. I'm part of the rainbow alphabet who believes in 100% equality and equity. I am an ally for our Indigenous Sisters and Brothers and feel like we have a lot of hard work ahead of us. I love travelling, social media, photography, trying new cuisines, craft beer, thrifting, colouring my hair wild and crazy colours, Supernatural (tv series), spending time with my husband Nathan and I am the very proud mother of our cat Tika who is the Queen of our home.
