- 1.02 The Company agrees to comply with all applicable Provincial and Federal legislation.
- 1.03 The Department's mentioned throughout this agreement are understood to be:
- Distillery
 - Maintenance
 - Blending/Maturing/Bulk Shipping
 - Bottling/Finished Goods Shipping

Article 2 – Union Recognition

- 2.01 The Company recognizes the Union as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent for all employees of the Company at its Lethbridge plant save and except Supervisors, persons above the rank of Supervisors, office staff, laboratory technicians, administrative office cleaners, and security guards.
- 2.02 Management personnel shall not perform any work that is normally done by the employees in the Bargaining Unit except for the purpose of training, commissioning of equipment, or in case of emergency. A case shall be an emergency if action by supervisory personnel is necessary to avoid or eliminate a dangerous condition or to avoid loss or damage to the Company's property, equipment, or product.

Article 3 – Union Security and Check Off

- 3.01 Only members of the Union in good standing shall be employed by the Company. Upon commencing employment, the Company shall require all employees to complete a membership application form and remit same to the Union with regular dues plus the established initiation fee on or before the fifteenth (15th) day of the following month.
- 3.02 The Company agrees to deduct from the wages of each employee, such initiation fees, assessments, and Union dues as authorized by the Union. The parties agree that should the Union require a dues structure that creates a new administrative process for the Company, the parties will meet to discuss and resolve. The amount of dues paid by each employee will be included on the T-4 document. Uniform special assessments will also be deducted from the employees' pay upon proper notification from the Union. Notice must be forwarded to the Company thirty (30) calendar days before any change is to become effective.
- 3.03 Monies deducted during any month shall be forwarded by the Company to the Union not later than the fifteenth (15th) day of the following month and accompanied by a written statement of the names of the employees for whom the deductions were made, total hours for each week, and the amount of each deduction separated by dues and other assessments.

Dues are to be submitted on a four (4) or five (5) week accounting period.

The above dues and initiation fees shall be submitted electronically in a manner acceptable to both parties.

3.04 There shall be no coercion, restraint, or discrimination by the Company against any members of the Union because of membership therein, or the carrying on of any "UNION ACTIVITY".

3.05 The Company shall be responsible for any errors or omissions in the deduction of Union dues. No employee shall be responsible to remit Union dues or assessments which were the error of the Company.

Article 4 – Union Activity

4.01 After first notifying and receiving permission from the Plant Manager, an official of the United Food and Commercial Workers Canada Union, Local No. 401 shall be permitted to enter the plant or Company premises in order to carry out legitimate Union business in an area designated by Management. There shall be no interference with the operation of production by any such Union official or other Union Representative.

4.02 The Union will provide four (4) lockable bulletin boards which will be installed by the Company in four (4) conspicuous, mutually agreed locations in the plant. The Union Representative only will have a key, but it is understood that only Union sanctioned materials shall be posted. The bulletin board is for Union information only.

The Union will be responsible for the maintenance and the repair of the bulletin board.

- 4.03 No individual employee or group of employees shall undertake to represent the Union at meetings with the Company without proper authorization of the Union. In order that this may be carried out, the Union will supply the Company with the names of its officers, Union Stewards and authorized committee members, and every amendment thereto.
- 4.04 The Company agrees to recognize Union Shop Stewards and the Union Grievance Committee consisting of the Shop Steward concerned and any two (2) other employees of the Union Executive who are employees of the Company. At the appropriate step and subject to the grievance procedure contained in Article 13, they may, at the request of an employee, accompany the employee or represent the employee in the processing of a grievance. When it becomes necessary for them to leave their jobs for this purpose they shall give their appropriate Supervisor as much advance notice as possible. Arrangements will be made by the Supervisor to permit them to leave their jobs for this purpose as soon as reasonably possible. There shall be no loss of regular earnings up to and including, but not beyond, Step 3. Such time off shall be granted only upon the approval of the Department Head or authorized alternate, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.
- 4.05 When an employee is being formally interviewed where a discipline memorandum will be placed in their file, they will be granted five (5) minutes prior to the interview to discuss the matter with a representative of the Union. This will not apply to annual reviews and/or ongoing coaching / counseling with the employee.

4.06 Union Orientation

At the end of a new employee orientation session the Shop Steward or Union Representative will be allowed twenty (20) minutes of paid time to address new employees.

Article 5 – Management Functions

5.01 The Union recognizes the Company retains all the customary rights, responsibilities, functions, and prerogatives of Management, the management and control of the Company's business, and the direction and control of the Company's workforce, subject only to the limitations contained in this Agreement. Without otherwise restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Company may only discipline or discharge for just cause and, where an Arbitrator determines an employee has been disciplined or discharged without just cause, the Arbitrator may reinstate the employee with or without benefits and/or compensation, subject to the duty of the employee to mitigate their loss.

Article 6 – No Discrimination/Harassment

6.01 No Discrimination

Neither the Company nor the Union will discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, colour, sex, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, gender expression, mental disability, source of income, physical disability, age, religious beliefs, ancestry, place of origin, marital status, or any other ground prohibited by any applicable law.

6.02 No Harassment

Harassment of any employee due to that employee's race, colour, sex, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, gender expression, mental disability, source of income, physical disability, age, religious beliefs, ancestry, place of origin, marital status, or any other ground prohibited by any applicable law is prohibited by this Agreement. Harassment consists of unwelcome conduct whether verbal or physical that is based upon a person's race, colour, sex, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, gender expression, mental disability, source of income, physical disability, age, religious beliefs, ancestry, place of origin, marital status, or any other ground prohibited by any applicable law.

6.03 No Tolerance for Harassing Conduct

The Company and the Union will not tolerate harassing conduct that interferes with an individual's work performance, or that creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.

The Union and the Company agree that Articles 6.02 and 6.03 can be read independently.

6.04 The Company recognizes the vital role that employees play in the success of the business. The Company agrees that all employees should be treated with fairness, dignity, and respect in all circumstances.

6.05 The Company and the Union will not tolerate retaliatory acts against those who, in good faith, provide information or participate in an investigation or make a complaint against the Company.

Article 7 – Strikes and Lockouts

7.01 In view of the orderly procedure for settling disputes enumerated in Article 13, the Company shall not engage in any lockout, and the Union and its members shall not engage in any strike during this Agreement or extension thereof.

Article 8 – Probationary Period

8.01 New employees (this does not include Supplementary) shall be on probation until they have been employed for forty-five (45) accumulative working days during a three (3) month period. During such probationary period, they shall not be entitled to seniority. At the end of the probationary period, an employee shall be entered on the seniority lists for regular employees, and their seniority shall be effective from their date of hire.

At any time during the probationary period, a probationary employee may be terminated and such termination shall not be subject in any manner to the grievance or arbitration procedure unless termination is for cause.

Article 9 – Seniority

9.01 Seniority shall be defined as an employee's length of service with the Company. Once an employee has completed their probationary period, their seniority shall commence and shall be calculated from their date of hire. Seniority shall continue to accumulate unless there is a break in service not covered by this Agreement.

9.02 Seniority shall be only expressed on a plant wide basis.

9.03 An employee shall lose their seniority or job rights for any of the following reasons:

- (a) if an employee is discharged for any just cause;
- (b) if an employee voluntarily leaves the employ of the Company;
- (c) any layoff exceeding length of service to a maximum of twelve (12) months duration;
- (d) failure to report to work as required by the General Recall Procedure;
- (e) if an employee is unduly absent from work for more than three (3) scheduled working days without notice to the Company, unless the employee can provide a reasonable explanation that such notice was impossible;
- (f) if an employee fails to report to work at the termination of a leave of absence;
- (g) if an employee fails to return to work from layoff within the time limits outlined in Article 10.06;
- (h) if an employee accepts the terms as outlined in Article 10.07.

9.04 The Company, with the approval and co-operation of the Union, shall revise and post as required (quarterly as a minimum) a complete and up to date seniority list.

9.05 In order that employees will be protected during a layoff, their names will remain on the seniority list and seniority will continue to accumulate during continuous non employment resulting from such layoff for a period equal to the seniority the employee has accumulated at the time layoff commenced, to a maximum of twelve (12) months in any case.

9.06 Where several employees are hired on the same date, seniority among that group will be determined by the Company and Union by drawing from the list of names to determine the order of seniority. The first name drawn will hold the highest seniority within the group, the second name drawn will be placed second, and so on.

9.07 Notwithstanding the above, the Company may employ supplementary employees under the following conditions:

- (a) To supplement the regular work force on an incidental basis during peak work periods, vacations, short-term illness, leaves of absence, and to facilitate training.
- (b) Supplementary employees will not take the place of full-time employees, prevent the creation of full-time jobs, nor will they be used to reduce the bargaining unit.
- (c) Supplementary employees shall, as a condition of employment, pay initiation fees as determined by the local Union, and pay Union dues each week or part thereof in all weeks worked thereafter.
- (d) A supplementary employee shall not:
 - 1. accrue seniority rights (except as below);
 - 2. be entitled to benefits normally granted other than those required under provincial statutes;

3. be guaranteed a minimum number of hours of work except as provided in Article 12.14 of the Collective Agreement;
 4. have recourse to the grievance procedure if laid off due to lack of work.
- (e) No more than seven (7) employees will be employed in the plant as supplementary employees.
- (f) The actual working time per week for supplementary employees averaged over three (3) months shall not exceed forty (40) hours.
- (g) The Company will maintain a list of supplementary employees not exceeding nine (9) for review by the Union upon request.
- (h) Supplementary employees will be entitled to:
1. Classifications and wage schedule;
 2. Overtime provisions of the Collective Agreement;
 3. Safety shoe allowance;
 4. Uniforms.
- (i) Supplementary employees who work one thousand two hundred (1,200) hours in two (2) calendar years will be given supplementary seniority rights; and
- (i) They will be called in on the basis of their seniority within the supplementary group excluding the period from May 1st to August 31st during which time students will be given preference for work available.

- (ii) They will move to Classification Table job level 10, subject to provisions of the Basic Starting Rate.

Article 10 – Layoff and Recall Procedures

10.01 It is understood that, in the event of changing conditions or the curtailment of business predicated on the necessity of a layoff, probationary and supplemental employees shall be laid off prior to the layoff of regular employees, except where a probationary employee, employed in the following classifications: Process Operators Power Engineer; Process Operator Programmers Relief Power Engineer; Journeyman Mechanics; Packaging Maintenance Mechanic (Millwright); Project Mechanic (Millwright); and Instrument Technician as listed under the Classification and Wage Schedule to this Agreement, cannot be replaced by a regular employee who is qualified and willing to carry out the duties required of that "classification". However, prior to any layoff of regular employees, the Company will discuss the problem with the Union in order that the most equitable method of handling the problem may be determined.

10.02 Seniority shall be recognized and followed for the purpose of affecting any layoff subject to the following conditions:

- (a) An employee subject to layoff, but whose seniority makes them eligible to bump into another position in accordance with Article 10.02 of the Collective Agreement, will be provided a ten (10) working day Orientation Period to determine whether the employee is capable and willing to perform the work available for the position. During the ten (10) working day Orientation Period, the employee may be entitled to some instruction, although not "training" as the Collective Agreement may require in other circumstances. The evaluation of whether the employee has demonstrated that they are capable of performing the position, shall be completed during the Orientation Period.

- (b) The Company and the Union acknowledge and agree that an employee cannot perform the duties of a position without the appropriate and required forklift license, rail certification, power engineer, or trade ticket.
- (c) If an employee is eligible to bump into a position which requires a forklift license, and the employee does not hold a forklift license, the Company will facilitate the employee's acquisition of that forklift license at the earliest opportunity. Prior to obtaining the required forklift license, the employee will be provided alternate work in a position for which the employee is qualified and able to perform, without any assistance or orientation, subject to seniority and reasonable operational concerns. If no such alternate work is available, the employee will be laid off temporarily in accordance with the Collective Agreement, subject to obtaining the license.
- (d) If an employee is eligible and elects to bump into the Distillery Receiver and Distribution Coordinator position in accordance with the terms of the Collective Agreement, but does not have rail certification, the employee will perform the Orientation Period prior to obtaining the rail certification. If the employee demonstrates that they are capable and willing to perform the work available in the Distillery Receiver and Distribution Coordinator position within the Orientation Period, the Company will facilitate the employee's acquisition of the rail certification at the earliest opportunity following the Orientation Period. Prior to obtaining the rail certification, the employee will be provided alternate work in a position for which the employee is qualified and able to perform, without any assistance or orientation, subject to seniority and reasonable operational concerns. If no such alternate work is available, the employee will be laid off temporarily in accordance with the Collective Agreement, subject to obtaining the license.

- (e) At the completion of the Orientation Period, in order to remain in the position the employee must have demonstrated the ability to perform the minimum requirements of the position, without any assistance or further orientation. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing and except as otherwise stated in this Article, it is a minimum requirement that the employee be able to perform the position in such a manner that the plant is able to continue operating, with no additional resources required, at the speed at which the plant operated prior to the employee receiving notice that they would be subject to layoff, although the employee will not necessarily be expected to perform the position at the same pace as an experienced operator.
- (f) An employee subject to layoff who, because of their seniority, is potentially entitled to bump into multiple positions must choose one (1) position in which to perform the Orientation Period. If the employee is not successful in establishing capability for that position during the Orientation Period in accordance with Article 10.02 (e), the employee will not be entitled to an Orientation Period for any other position during that period of layoff. The employee may, however, return to a position that they are qualified for and have previously demonstrated the capability to perform all the duties of, without any assistance or orientation. If the employee desires to return to such a position, the Company will facilitate this, subject to seniority and reasonable operational concerns.

- (g) Employees subject to layoff will select the position in which to perform the Orientation Period on the basis of seniority. The process for employees to perform the Orientation Period where two (2) or more employees select to perform the Orientation Period for the same position is as follows:
 - (i) If two (2) or more employees choose to perform the Orientation Period for the same position, the most senior employee will perform the Orientation Period first.
 - (ii) While waiting for the opportunity to perform the Orientation Period, any less senior employee will be provided alternate work in a position for which the employee is qualified and able to perform, without any assistance or orientation, subject to seniority and reasonable operational concerns. If no such alternate work is available, the employee will be laid off in accordance with the Collective Agreement.
 - (iii) If the most senior employee demonstrates that they are capable of performing the position during the Orientation Period, any less senior employee who selected to attempt to perform the Orientation Period in that position will bump into a position for which the employee is qualified and able to perform, without any assistance or orientation, and for which the employee is eligible to bump into based on seniority, or will be laid off if no such position is available.

- (iv) If the most senior employee does not successfully demonstrate that they are capable of performing the position during the Orientation Period, the next most senior employee will receive the opportunity to perform the Orientation Period.
- (v) The process described in this Article will be repeated each time the most senior employee does not demonstrate that they were capable of performing the position during the Orientation Period and there remains a less senior employee who selected to perform the Orientation Period in that position.

10.03 Layoffs of fifteen (15) working days or less shall be considered a temporary layoff. In the event of a temporary layoff, Article 9.02 shall not apply. Employees facing a temporary layoff shall be entitled to displace the junior employee in the plant if the senior employee is qualified to perform that position. In such an event that employee shall maintain their rate of pay for the period of temporary assignment.

10.04 In recalling regular employees laid off due to a lack of work, recall will be in the reverse order of layoff, provided the employee holds an appropriate trade ticket or Power Engineer Certificate for the position, and is capable and willing to perform the work available.

10.05 Temporary or Emergency Recall Procedure

During a layoff the procedure for recall for work of ten (10) working days or less will be as follows: Employees shall be notified by telephone in order of seniority providing they hold an appropriate trade ticket or Power Engineer Certificate for the position, and are qualified and willing to perform the work available. If an employee is not qualified and willing to work on jobs of a temporary or emergency nature, the employee shall not lose their recall or seniority rights.

10.06 General Recall Procedure

The employee being recalled (except for purposes of a temporary or emergency nature) shall receive notice of recall by registered mail to the employee's last known residential address. It is the responsibility of the employee to notify the Company of any change in residential address and telephone number. The employee shall notify the Company of their intention to return to work within three (3) days and shall return to work within seven (7) days from the date on which the registered letter was forwarded.

10.07 Employees placed on permanent layoff (this does not apply when an employee is reduced in classification through the layoff procedure) will be eligible for one and a half (1-1/2) week's severance pay for each full year of service or two (2) weeks severance pay for each full year of service in the event of a total plant closure payable at the employee's last basic pay rate. If an employee wishes to claim their severance pay they must notify the Company in writing within twelve (12) calendar months from their official layoff date that they waive their recall rights as outlined in Articles 9.01 and 9.05 and accepts their severance pay as of that date.

Article 11 – Promotions, Transfers, and Job Postings

11.01 Opportunities for promotions and transfers will be posted on the plant Bulletin Board for five (5) consecutive working days, soliciting the names of employees who wish to fill such positions, outlining generally the nature and condition of the position. This posting will also be emailed to all employees to the last known email address provided to the Company. It is the employee's responsibility to keep the Company updated on their personal email addresses.

In the event that the Company creates a new classification, the Union shall be given notice and the wages of such job shall be negotiated with the Union before posting. If a satisfactory settlement is not reached within one (1) week of the notice, the posting shall be made with wages set by the Company, but the posting shall contain the statement, "the final settlement of wages is being negotiated".

11.02 When there is an opportunity for promotion or transfer to any job, or where an employee may learn or qualify for another job, these changes will be made on an evaluation of the employee's ability and qualifications, and where two (2) or more persons have comparable ability and qualifications, then the choice will be made on the basis of seniority.

11.03 In the event that no employee(s) has the necessary qualifications according to the requirements of the posted position, or that no employee(s) applies for the posted position, then the Company reserves the right to hire or promote from outside the Bargaining Unit.

11.04 Successful applicants will be given a trial period of thirty (30) calendar days, after which time the position will be assigned to them permanently. Should the applicant prove unsatisfactory in the position the employee shall return to their previous position and their rate of pay. All other employees affected shall return to their previous position and rate of pay.

- 11.05 If an employee is absent during the period when a position is job posted, they may have their name submitted by the Union Steward(s) or Representative and, if they are the successful applicant, all of the provisions of Article 11.04 will apply. The Company will provide the Union Representative with a copy of all job postings prior to posting.
- 11.06 If an employee is required to transfer temporarily for more than one (1) hour to a higher classified position than their own, they shall be paid at the higher hourly rate for hours actually worked.
- 11.07 If an employee is required to transfer temporarily to a lower classification than their own, except in the case of layoff or demotion, they shall be paid at their basic rate.
- 11.08 The Company may, for a period not to exceed one (1) month unless extended by mutual agreement, fill any position temporarily either before posting or until the position has been filled.
- 11.09 It is mutually agreed between the Company and the Union that experience gained by employees who have been awarded a relief or temporary position will not be a determining factor when awarding the position on a permanent basis.

Article 12 – Hours of Work and Overtime

- 12.01 The regular work week for day workers shall consist of eight (8) hours per day, five (5) days per week, Monday to Friday inclusive. For payroll purposes, the pay week will be between midnight Saturday and midnight the succeeding Saturday.

12.02 The regular work week for shift workers shall be between midnight Saturday and midnight the succeeding Saturday.

12.03 The Company will post a work schedule for employees on Wednesday of the preceding work week, "advising changes in shift". Changes in the schedule may be made with forty-eight (48) hours notice. Any work performed prior to an employee's scheduled starting time, and any work performed after an employee's scheduled quitting time, shall be paid at the applicable overtime rate.

12.04 The stated number of daily hours of work and/or weekly hours of work is stated solely for the purpose of calculating overtime and shall not be construed as a guarantee of hours of work.

12.05 Overtime work shall be allocated to the most senior full-time employees trained, capable, and willing to do the work required firstly on a departmental basis and then plant wide. Overtime work shall not be compulsory, provided that any employee not desiring overtime work can be replaced with another employee who is capable of doing the job.

Employees will not be eligible for overtime if it occurs during their vacation.

12.06 For day employees there shall be a thirty (30) minute unpaid lunch period.

12.07 For continuous shift employees there shall be a thirty (30) minute paid lunch period, during which the employee shall continue all necessary supervision of machinery and maintenance of services.

- 12.08 There shall be one (1) fifteen (15) minute paid rest period for each four (4) hours worked during an employee's regular shift.
- 12.09 "Basic Rate" means the rate of the employee's classification as outlined in the Classification Schedule of this Agreement.
- 12.10 Shift employees who are required to work on a Saturday or Sunday as part of their regular schedule, or who start or finish work on a Saturday or Sunday, shall be paid one and one-half (1-1/2 ~~X~~) times the rate of the job being performed, plus any shift differential that is applicable for hours worked on Saturday or Sunday. Saturday and Sunday overtime rates will not be pyramided with earned overtime in determining the total overtime hours for the work week. For all work in excess of twelve (12) hours per shift or forty (40) hours in the work week or on their day off or for hours worked outside their regular shift, an employee shall be paid one and one half (1-1/2 ~~X~~) times the rate of the job being performed. Two (2~~X~~) times the rate of the job being performed will be paid for all overtime hours worked by an employee in excess of eight (8) hours' overtime in the work week.
- 12.11 One and one-half (1-1/2 ~~X~~) times the rate of the job being performed will be paid for all hours worked by a day employee on their days off, and for all work in excess of eight (8) hours in the work day or forty (40) hours in the work week, or for hours worked outside of their regular shift schedule. Two (2~~X~~) times the rate of the job being performed will be paid for all overtime hours worked by a day employee in excess of eight (8) hours' overtime in the work week.
- 12.12 One and one-half (1-1/2 ~~X~~) times the rate of the job being performed will be paid for all hours worked by a day employee on a Saturday or Sunday.

12.13 Overtime or premium rates shall not be pyramided on any given day of the work week: if, for example, daily overtime, weekly overtime, or Holiday premium pay occur on the same day, the employee shall receive only one such if any, be paid two (~~2X~~) times the rate of the job being performed of pay for all hours worked by the employee on that day.

12.14 Reporting to Work Pay

All employees reporting to work at the request of the Company and not permitted to work, and employees starting to work and work less than eight (8) hours, shall receive pay at their basic rate for their hours worked, but in no case shall they receive less than four (4) hours' pay at their basic rate unless the failure to give employment shall have been for cause beyond the reasonable control of the Company.

Reporting to Work Pay as expressed in the foregoing does not apply in the case of suspension, a discharge, and illness, other than illness due to a compensable accident under the Workers' Compensation Act.

12.15 Call In

An employee who is called in to do work outside of their regular schedule shall be paid a minimum of four (4) hours' pay at the applicable overtime rate, save and except an employee who is required to report to work two (2) hours or less before the commencement of their regular starting time shall be paid only the applicable overtime rate for hours worked prior to the commencement of their scheduled starting time. An employee called in shall not be required to perform work other than that specified for the call in and reasonably related thereto.

- 12.16 No employee shall be laid off during their regular working schedule to equalize any overtime which the employee has worked during the same working week or pay period.
- 12.17 At its discretion the Company may initiate and maintain continuous work schedules.
- 12.18 In the case of overtime of one (1) hour or less, there shall not be a stoppage of work for a rest period. There shall be one (1) fifteen (15) minute paid rest period, at the applicable rate, after one (1) hour's overtime and every two (2) hours thereafter.

Article 13 – Grievance Procedure and Arbitration

13.01 Definition of Grievance

Subject to Article 7, "grievance" means any difference between parties or persons bound by this Collective Agreement, concerning the interpretation, application, operation, or any alleged contravention of this Agreement, including any question as to whether any difference is arbitrable. All grievances shall be dealt with in the manner set out in this Article without slow down or stoppage of work.

13.02 Settling of Grievances

STEP 1: An employee and their Shop Steward may request time to discuss a complaint with the employee's immediate Supervisor. Failing satisfactory settlement, the employee concerned and their Union Steward may submit a grievance in writing to the employee's immediate Supervisor for settlement. Such grievances must be submitted within ten (10) working days from the time they arise, except where a grievance involves a monetary adjustment, a grievance shall be submitted within ten (10) days from the time the grievance became known or should have become known to the employee(s).

13.03 STEP 2: If a satisfactory settlement is not reached within five (5) working days after the grievance was submitted under Step 1, the employee concerned and an officer of the Union may submit the grievance in writing to the head of the department involved.

13.04 STEP 3: If a satisfactory settlement is not reached within five (5) working days after the grievance was submitted under Step 2, the employee concerned and/or an officer of the Union may submit the grievance in writing to the Plant Manager, who shall meet with the Union Representative with a view to settling the grievance.

13.05 STEP 4: If a satisfactory settlement is not reached within seven (7) working days after the grievance was submitted under Step 3; the Union may, on giving ten (10) working days' notice to the Plant Manager of its intention in writing, refer the grievance to Arbitration.

13.06 Replies in Writing

Replies to grievances shall be in writing to the Union Representative, the employee concerned, and the Shop Steward, at all stages of the grievance procedure. Any grievance shall be deemed to have been withdrawn if, after an answer has been given at any step, more than ten (10) working days have elapsed before the grievance is carried to the next step.
