Collective Agreement, but in no case shall the visit interfere with the Employer's operations.

- 3.02 Before entering the restaurant the Union Representative shall first seek permission with the General Manager or other managerial personnel of the Employer, which permission shall not be unreasonably denied.

Article 5 – Management Rights

5.01 The Union and the employees acknowledge that it is the exclusive right of the Employer to manage its business and, subject only to those specific limitations expressly contained in this Agreement, all rights and prerogatives of Management are retained by the Employer. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the rights of the Employer shall include but not be limited to:

Article 7 – Grievance Procedure

- 7.01 A grievance shall be defined as any difference arising out of the interpretation, application, or alleged violation of the Collective Agreement. It is the mutual desire of the parties that grievances will be adjusted as quickly as possible.

- 7.02 Prior to filing a grievance, an employee may first discuss the issue with the employee's Manager. If an employee requests, a Union Steward or a Union Representative may discuss the issue with the Manager, on the employee's behalf.
- 7.03 Where an employee, who has completed the probationary period, is discharged or suspended, the Union may present the employee's written grievance directly to the Director of Operations or designate at Step No. 2 of the grievance procedure within fourteen (14) days from the time that the employee was notified of the suspension or discharge.
- 7.04 Step No. 1: Failing settlement of the grievance in a verbal discussion, the Union may submit the grievance, in writing, to the General Manager. Such written statement of the grievance must be submitted within fourteen (14) calendar days from the occurrence of the event which gave rise to the grievance. The Employer shall respond to the grievance in writing within seven (7) calendar days of the Step 2 Meeting.

7.06 Any differences arising directly between the Union and the Employer relating to the interpretation, application, or alleged violation of this agreement may be presented by either party as a Policy Grievance, within fourteen (14) calendar days from the time that the party knew, or should have known, of the subject matter of the grievance. - 9.03 A record of discipline contained in an employee's personnel file will not be relied upon after twenty-four (24) months, provided that the employee has not been subsequently disciplined within that time period.

Article 10 – Seniority

- 10.01 Seniority shall mean the length of continuous service in the employ of the Employer. In the case of employees hired prior to certification, their seniority shall be credited to their original date of hire. If two (2) or more employees commence work on the same day, seniority shall be determined by the alphabetical order of their last name.
- 10.02 The probationary period for a newly hired employee is ninety (90) calendar days. Probationary employees will have no seniority rights during this period. After the probationary period expires, seniority shall date from when the employee entered the service of the Employer. The discipline of a probationary employee is at the discretion of the Employer, provided it is not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement, applicable legislation, or due to membership activity in the Union. The probationary period is for the purpose of training employees and to allow the Employer to assess the employee's suitability for continued employment.

10.03 Employees shall be laid off and recalled by classification. When laying off or recalling employees by classification, the Employer shall consider the following factors:

- (a) skill, ability, qualifications, and availability to perform the job;
- (b) seniority.

Where the factors in (a) are relatively equal, seniority shall govern.

10.04 Seniority shall terminate and an employee shall be deemed to have left the employment of the Employer, in the event the employee:

- (a) voluntarily terminates their employment with the Employer or retires;
- (b) is discharged and not reinstated through the grievance and arbitration procedure;
- (c) fails to report to work upon recall after lay-off within three (3) working days, from the time of notification by direct contact or registered mail;

- 10.05 No employee shall be transferred outside of the bargaining unit without the agreement of the employee.
- 10.06 In the event that an employee agrees to be transferred outside of the bargaining unit, the employee shall retain their bargaining unit seniority for a period of six (6) months during which they may return to the bargaining unit at their request, or at the request of the Employer, with no loss of seniority.
- 10.07 It is the employee's responsibility to ensure that the employee's home address and telephone number on the Employer's records are always current. If the employee fails to do this, in writing, the Employer will not be responsible for its inability to notify the employee of recall or with respect to any other obligation of the Employer to notify the employee under this Agreement.
- 10.08 The Employer will post a seniority list and upon posting, file a copy with the Union, showing each employee's name, hire date, and classification. The Employer shall post such lists on the notice board provided, on or before the fifteenth (15th) day of April and the fifteenth (15th) day of October in each year. A copy of the seniority list shall be submitted to the Union upon signing this Agreement and upon the above dates. The Employer agrees that the list provided to the Union will also contain each employee's address, phone number, and the last three (3) digits of the employee's social insurance number.

Article 11 – Job Postings

- 11.01 Employees interested in applying for a new or different classification, shall notify the Manager or their designate. The Manager or designate shall provide the employee with a form (notice of interest) outlining all classifications within the bargaining unit. The employee shall identify those classifications in which they wish to be considered. A copy of the form shall be supplied to the Union office.

- 11.02 In the event a vacancy occurs the Employer will review the notices of interest on file. In determining the successful candidate, the Employer shall consider the employee's skill, ability, qualifications, and availability. In the event two (2) or more applicants have relatively equal skill, ability, and qualifications then seniority shall be the governing factor, provided they are available to work the necessary shifts. Employees will be provided the opportunity to update their availability prior to the Employer awarding the position. Employees shall indicate to the Employer their preference of classification in which they would like to be scheduled in the event that they are working between two (2) different classifications. The Employer will consider applications from existing employees before those from external candidates.
- 11.03 The successful applicant shall be on trial for a period of twenty (20) worked shifts. During this trial period the Employer may place the employee back to their former classification and rate without loss of seniority, should the employee be unable to satisfactorily perform the duties of the classification.
- 11.04 The successful applicant shall be able to resume their former classification and rate without loss of seniority during the trial period, if they wish to.

11.05 New Classifications

In the event that the Employer creates a new classification not listed in Schedule "A", the Employer shall set the rate of pay for the new classification and notify the Union within seven (7) days of the commencement of the classification.

The Union may, within ten (10) days of being notified, request a meeting to discuss the wage rate.

- 12.02 The regular work schedule shall be from Monday to Sunday. Weekly schedules shall be posted online no later than 11:00 p.m. the Thursday prior to the next weeks schedule. Employees will be notified of changes as far in advance as possible, but with a minimum of twenty-four (24) hours' notice, of a change in their work schedule. In the event of a shift cancellation, employees will be notified of changes as far in advance as possible, but with a minimum of four (4) hours' notice, unless the reason for the cancellation is because of causes beyond the Employer's control. If shift cancellations are occurring regularly with only four (4) hours' notice, the Employer agrees to meet with the Union to discuss this issue.
- 12.03 No employees shall be scheduled to work less than three (3) hours per shift and there shall be no scheduling of split shifts unless by mutual agreement with the employee involved. Employees shall be paid for three (3) hours unless the employee requests to leave work earlier.
- 12.04 Employees may submit requests to change their availability on an online tool provided by the Employer.

12.09 There shall be no duplication or pyramiding of overtime.

12.10 In the event the Employer requires overtime then the following shall apply:

- (a) Unscheduled overtime shall be offered first to the employee performing the work that requires the overtime and then by seniority of the employees currently at work provided the employee has the skill, ability, and qualifications to perform the overtime required.
- (b) Scheduled overtime shall be offered by seniority, provided the employee has the skill, ability, qualifications to perform the overtime required.
- (c) Nothing in this article shall require the Employer to schedule overtime, or create an unscheduled overtime opportunity, at any time.

12.11 The Employer shall supply copies of schedules and hours worked, at the request of the Union.

12.12 Employees that are required by the Employer to attend information meetings or training exercise outside of working hours will be paid their regular hourly rate of pay for such time.
